

NordicHack is looking for volunteers ! Join us !

WHAT IS NORDICHACK?

NordicHack is a 24-hour hackathon with a theme that challenges students to "Imagine tomorrow by hacking today"

During this hackathon we aim at engaging students into thinking outside the box and come up with innovations that could potentially change the world as we know it, one step at a time. Overall, students will have opportunity to learn new skills, connect with corporate sponsors and have fun with other students who share their passion for building new and cool stuff.

The hackathon will take place at UCN Campus Sofiendalsvej, on the 23rd and 24th of February 2018. We aim at approximately 100-150 students. The event will be open for students within any field, but we highly encourage every team to have a developer and a designer.

WHO IS BEHIND NORDICHACK?

We are a team of 8 enthusiastic students, both Danish and international, who work hard to make this event a great experience for all participants. Our team members come from different educations within the technology campus such as Web Development, Digital Concept Development and Product Development.

WHAT ARE YOUR TASKS?

During the event we will need volunteers to do the following tasks:

- ▶ Guarding classrooms
- ▶ Guard hardware room
- ▶ Guarding entrance
- ▶ Night shift. Checking classrooms, so there are no troubles.
- ▶ Garbage and general cleaning.
- ▶ Standby, helping people if they have questions

The volunteers will be needed ONLY on the days of the event (23-24.02.2018), including during the night. We will have a gathering of all volunteers before that on which you will receive guidance about the different tasks.

WHAT'S IN IT FOR YOU?

If you help us in this, you will be provided the following:

- ▶ A NordicHack T-shirt
- ▶ Food (breakfast, lunch, and dinner)
- ▶ Written recommendation from us for your CV.
- ▶ A great time, where you will learn to develop new ideas into prototypes, meet new people and expand your network.
